

Activity Fee Subsidy Programs

All subsidy programs listed have online applications. Proof of financial eligibility is required for every application. This could be a copy of pages 1 and 2 of the Canada Child Benefit Statement. Financial eligibility is determined using the Federal Low Income Cut Off (LICO) guidelines.

Jumpstart

Jumpstart funds activities that focus on sports and physical activity for children age 4-18. Jumpstart covers up to $300 per child per activity, to an annual max of $600. Visit jumpstart.canadiantire.ca for more information and to apply. Funding may be used for registration and/or equipment needed to participate.

Kidsport

Kidsport funds sports for children up to age 18. Kidsport covers 50% of registration fees to an annual max of $200 per child. Visit Kidsportcanada.ca for more information and to apply.

City of Lethbridge Recreation and Culture Fee Assistance Program

The Recreational and Culture fee assistance program funds recreational and cultural programming and/or memberships for children and adults. Qualifying individuals can receive up to $150 per person twice a year (Jan-June, July-Dec). Visit www.lethbridge.ca/feeassistance for more information and to apply.

Need Equipment For Your Sport?

Keep in mind the equipment that may be needed for the sport you are registering for. You can use Jumpstart, Kidsport or Comrie Sports Equipment Bank 403-202-0251 to access the equipment you may need.

Summer Fun!

These subsidy programs can also be used for summer camps. Camps must be a minimum of 4 days in length, and must meet the other criteria for the subsidy program (eg. be sports related). Funding amounts remain the same.

Did You Know...

You can use subsidy programs (City of Lethbridge program) to access swim passes for your family! Or you can combine the City of Lethbridge subsidy with the YMCA subsidy program to acquire reduced cost or possible free family passes to the YMCA.
