

JUNE

ITOTSISAMSOOTAA

LONG RAIN MONTH

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

DAY JUNE 21, 2022

Ways to participate in National Indigenous Peoples Day

- Make Bannock or Berry Soup
- Celebrate the summer solstice
- Find the "Indigenous Peoples Day" duotang filled with activities in your learning commons
- Take a trip to Writing on Stone or Head Smashed in Buffalo Jump
- Attend a local event
- Watch an Indigenous film
- Listen to some Indigenous music
- Go to the event at Fort Whoop up from 1-4: It's free and all ages are welcome!
- Check out some links
 - Aboriginal Peoples of Alberta
 - National Indigenous Peoples Day
 - UofL Blackfoot Digital Library
 - Guide to Relationships and Learning with the Indigenous Peoples of Alberta
 - Indigenous trail blazers
 - Follow: Alberta- Ministry of Indigenous Relations on Facebook

SUMMER SOLSTICE EDUCATION DAYS

Sign up for this year's Summer Solstice Education days! Click on the picture above to go to the website to register for updates. There is a marketplace, creative workshops, traditional knowledge, powwow, family fun zone, culinary experiences, and a celebration stage.

Thank you

WHAT A TRULY FANTASTIC YEAR. I WANT TO GENUINELY THANK YOU FOR ALL YOUR WORK AND DEDICATION BRINGING IN INDIGENOUS TEACHINGS AND PERSPECTIVES INTO YOUR CLASSROOMS AND SCHOOLS. I AM HUMBLED AND BLESSED TO WORK WITH ALL OF YOU. WHATEVER YOU DO THIS SUMMER I HOPE IT BRINGS YOU JOY AND LAUGHTER. REST UP! SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER :)

Grade 1's @ MMH watching the Moose Hide Campaign Live Stream

Buffalo kit at Immanuel Christian

Kainai Diabetes Walk and Run

Talking Sticks at Park Meadows

MMH Buffalo Kit

Park Meadows Buffalo Kit

Inuit Kit at Immanuel Christian

Métis kit at Probe

Coalbanks Plant Walk

