

HIGHLIGHTS

FROM THE OFFICE

Oki,

As December unfolds, it's a wonderful time to celebrate the rich tapestry of cultures that make our school community so vibrant. This month holds significance for various festivities and traditions across different backgrounds. Whether you observe Hanukkah, Christmas, Diwali, Kwanzaa, or other cultural celebrations, let us come together in a spirit of inclusivity and understanding. Our diversity is our strength, and as we reflect on the past year, I am grateful for the unique perspectives and traditions that each of you brings to our school family.

Wishing you all a December filled with warmth, respect, and appreciation for the richness that our diverse community brings.

All the best,

Connie Adserballe
